

Executive Seminar in National and International Affairs
16 May 1984

- Welcome you to CIA headquarters -- we look forward to your day with the Intelligence Community.

- Might think of IC like a human head -- eyes-photo, ears-comint, nose, lips -- represent whole range of sensors -- head-analyze all source information, elint-seismic, radiation, etc.

- 1970s -- lost 40 percent of funding, 50 percent of people, close to analysts.

- Soviet weapons -- military doctrine -- neglect Third World -- S&T -- economic -- heavy technical commitments -- humint.

- Ad and Cong support -- Third World -- Soviet and free world S&T -- debt, competition -- increased human assets -- reporting by 25 percent -- also qualitatively -- signals and photo coverage -- more complex -- 4 times -- processing -- computer -- range and quality of analyses -- estimate -- 4 times.

- World more complex and dangerous.

-- Creeping imperialism - Africa, Central America, Latin America
